Changing Communities: Understanding Local and State History

Social Studies
Fairfield Public Schools
Grade 3-Connecticut and Fairfield History (11/19/2015) DRAFT

Description:
In Grade 3, students will engage in a year-long study of Connecticut and Fairfield. They will analyze the impact of geography, economics, and government structures to study the history and contemporary society of Connecticut and Fairfield. The study of Connecticut requires that students generate and research compelling questions across the four core disciplines (History, Civics, Economics, and Geography).

Overview

Central Understanding (Goals)
• Students will understand how the Town of Fairfield’s communities have contributed to Connecticut’s story, past and present.
• Students will compare and contrast the past and present changes of Fairfield and Connecticut.
• Students will identify the significance of Connecticut’s contribution to America’s story and how did that influence impact our state’s identity.

Compelling Questions
HISTORY:
• In what ways has our town and Connecticut changed and/or stayed the same over time?
• What is the significance of Connecticut’s contribution to America’s story?
• How does our town/city contribute to Connecticut’s history?
• How has our local community contributed to Connecticut’s story, past and present?

CIVICS:
• How are governmental decisions made at the state and local levels?
• Is it possible to make political decisions that are “fair” to all people?
• Why are rules/laws important?

ECONOMICS:
• What resources are in our community and state?
• How do we pay for goods and services?
• How does our government pay for goods and services?

GEOGRAPHY:
• What is Connecticut’s state identity and in what ways is that identity inclusive of all residents?
• Why do you live where you live?

Monitoring Student Progress

Students’ progress in relation to the content and skill standards will be measured with teacher-generated as well as district-wide, formative summative and project based assessments.

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RI.3.3
Describe the relationship between a series of historical events, scientific ideas or concepts, or steps in technical procedures in a text, using language that pertains to time, sequence, and cause/effect.

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RI.3.6
Distinguish their own point of view from that of the author of a text.

Integration of Knowledge and Ideas:

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RI.3.7
Use information gained from illustrations (e.g., maps, photographs) and the words in a text to demonstrate understanding of the text (e.g., where, when, why, and how key events occur).

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RI.3.8
Describe the logical connection between particular sentences and paragraphs in a text (e.g., comparison, cause/effect, first/second/third in a sequence).

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RI.3.9
Compare and contrast the most important points and key details presented in two texts on the same topic.
