

Appendix F

Student recording sheet for the amusement park investigation (Day Five)

Names _____ Date _____

■ One day, a conversation occurred in the teachers' lounge about a fourth-grade trip to an amusement park. There were 100 students going and the teachers had 13 chaperones to help. They were trying to decide how many students should be in each group if they made 13 groups. What do you think?