COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Advanced Placement Modern European History course deals with the facts, ideas, events and personalities, which have shaped Europe's history from approximately 1450 to the present. The journey through Europe's rich and diverse history takes the student from the tragedy of the Bubonic plague at the end of the Medieval Period to the establishment of contemporary Europe. Units of study will include the Renaissance and Reformation, the age of Absolutism, the Scientific Revolution and the Enlightenment, the French Revolution and Napoleonic Europe, the rise of popular political ideologies (the "isms") and the Revolutions of 1848 leading to the emergence of nation states, the Age of Industrial and International expansion preceding World War I, the World Wars, the Cold War and current issues. Within the frameworks of a chronological analysis, attention will also be given to unifying themes in intellectual and cultural history, political and diplomatic history, as well as social and economic history. Although the primary purpose of the course is enrichment of the high school experience, students are expected to take the Advanced Placement Modern European History Examination in May. In addition, students electing the course are eligible to receive credit in history under the UCONN Co-Op program if all requirements are met.
