COURSE DESCRIPTION

The United States History course deals with facts, ideas, events, and personalities that have shaped our nation from its Revolutionary Era to the present day. Under our democratic political system, the United States has achieved a level of freedom, political stability and economic prosperity that has made it a model for other nations, the leader of the world's democratic societies, and a magnet for people all over the world. Students should understand that our rights and freedoms are not accidents of history. There are recurring themes that serve as the ideal foundation of study for a student to effectively analyze assured content from various historical periods. This foundation enables the student to make connections between past and present. Students should recognize that our democratic political system depends on them, as educated citizens, to survive and prosper. United States History is a requirement of the social studies department for all eleventh graders. It is a year-long course that also fulfills the Connecticut State Department of Education requirement for United States History. From this study, a student should be able to analyze the roots of our present society and begin to develop effective ways of living in it.
